Standardisation of laparoscopic training provides urologists with a basic competence level

Decrease differences between European countries

Basic principle: Urologists who pass this training have the basic laparoscopic skills required to further develop skills in clinical practice more efficiently

EAU offers training package and exams: e-learning, virtual simulation and box training
ESU – Work in progress

- Onsite Workshops
- Undergraduate curriculum in urology
- Curriculum Hands-on training
- EU Focus
Onsite Workshops

To offer different possibilities at the operating or other non-surgical techniques

Objective:

to facilitate the urologists in situ and fast surgical updates in different surgical techniques and non-surgical practical aspects of the specialty
Close collaboration between ESU and European Urological Scholarship Programme (EUSP)

The EUSP offers 5 different programmes:

LS: Laboratory Research Scholarship (1 year)
A year-long programme for final-year residents or young urologists to conduct high-quality basic research at a leading European facility

CS: Clinical Research Scholarship (1 year)
A year-long programme for final-year residents or young urologists to conduct high-quality clinical research at a leading European facility

SV: Short Visit (3 weeks)
A short visit is the first step for a laboratory or clinical research scholarship. It serves to make preparations for the research project and the longer stay

CV: Clinical Visit (3 months)
A three-month programme for residents or young urologists to acquire technical skills at a certified host institution in a foreign country

ViPP: Visiting Professor Programme
This grant helps hospitals without the necessary means to invite a leading academic urologist to visit for four days and give lectures, courses & seminars

For more information and all the application forms, please have a look at the website: www.uroweb.org/education

Application deadlines:

1 January, 1 May, 1 September
What can ESU offer?
